Mae strategaeth newydd, a lansiwyd ar 5 Medi, yn anelu i gynorthwyo gydag ymdrin ag achosion troseddau ymhlith merched yng Ngogledd Cymru a gwneud gwahaniaeth gwirioneddol i fywydau merched, lleihau eu cysylltiad gyda'r system cyfiawnder troseddol, a thorri trosedd.

Gan ychwanegu at sylfeini Glasbrint Cyfiawnder Merched Cymru a gwaith sefydliadau a phartneriaid presennol ledled y rhanbarth, mae Strategaeth Cyfiawnder Merched Gogledd Cymru wedi'i lunio gan Grŵp Cyflawni Merched mewn Cyfiawnder Gogledd Cymru. Mae hyn yn unol ag addewid Andy Dunbobbin, Comisiynydd Heddlu a Throsedd Gogledd Cymru, i gyflawni gwell cymorth a chanlyniadau i ferched yn eu profiad o'r system cyfiawnder troseddol. ## New strategy to deliver step change for women in the justice system in North Wales

A new strategy, launched on September 5th, aims to help address the causes of female offending in North Wales and to make a genuine difference to women's lives, reduce their involvement with the criminal justice system, and cut crime.

Building on the foundations of the Women's Justice Blueprint for Wales and the work of existing organisations and partners across the region, the North Wales Women's Justice Strategy has been designed by the North Wales Women in Justice Delivery Group in line with North Wales Police and Crime Commissioner, Andy Dunbobbin's, pledge to deliver better support and outcomes for women in their experience of the criminal justice system. The strategy is the first of its kind at a local level in Wales. Read more here.

PCC sees how money seized from criminals is helping Conwy Scouts get out and about

North Wales Police and Crime Commissioner, Andy Dunbobbin, visited Capel Curig on September 17 to join Conwy District Scouts at its local camp. While in the beautiful location next to the Moel Siabod café, he met the Group Leaders and local Scouts, learnt more about their activities and saw how money taken from criminals has helped them buy a much-needed minibus to help them in their work.

Earlier this year, Conwy District Scouts received £2,500 from the Police and Crime Commissioner's Your Community, Your Choice fund to help purchase a new district minibus, which Conwy Scouts feel is essential in providing activities at low or no cost for local children. Read more here.
